Making Digital Inclusive: Blending the Local and the Global

December 13-16, 2020

Early Bird Registration Coming Soon!

Prepare now to join Information Systems colleagues from around the globe for ICIS 2020 to be held virtually from December 13 - 16.

The discounted Early Bird Registration will be opening mid-October so plan now for cutting-edge research, compelling keynote presentations, vibrant panel discussions, and unique opportunities to socialize with others virtually.

The Early Bird Discount registration fee ends November 16. Make sure to register early!

- $175 USD for Academic members
- $100 USD for Doctoral Student members
- $500 USD for Professional members

In addition to the exciting programming, many elements throughout the conference will pay homage to the energetic culture of India in honor of the intended host country.

Unique Scheduling Model

The conference schedule will rotate timing each day to provide convenient session times for each of the three AIS Regions. Daily focus:

- Monday, December 14 - Region 3 attendees
- Tuesday, December 15 - Region 2 attendees
- Wednesday, December 16 - Region 1 attendees

While each day will be more suitable for one particular region, there are times throughout the schedule that are inclusive of other regions as well. Of course, all attendees are encouraged to attend sessions throughout all three days of the conference and a tentative schedule can be found at <https://icis2020.aisconferences.org/schedule-program/>.

More Coming Soon:

Check the ICIS 2020 website frequently to stay up-to-date on keynote and panel information. The ICIS committee is working to secure a legendary figure in the global IT community to serve as keynote presenter for Monday, December 14.

Honoring Members

AIS leadership is excited to continue the tradition of honoring leaders in the field of information systems. Throughout the conference, the most prestigious association awards will be presented to our deserving members.
